Additional Information:

Immerse yourself in the adventure world of our children's camp with living in the real world of Florida nature!

We are located just 3.5 hours from Miami, close to magical Orlando. Our campsite is a closed, safe area, specially equipped for your peace and relaxation, fun and development of your children. At our disposal are cozy detachment houses, a functional kitchen, a spacious dining room, secluded pavilions, as well as clean showers and toilets

A shuttle service is also available upon request.

A wonderful shallow river, hiking trails through a real forest, an amazing state park, scenic springs and a kayaking center are just a stone's throw from us.

We are waiting for boys and girls aged 7 to 14 years in the junior, middle and senior group!

The goals of our camp are not only recreation and entertainment, but new sports and creative skills, development of leadership qualities, friendship, responsibility and attentiveness and discipline! Children will be able to get unforgettable impressions, express themselves in communication in a new team of children and counselors, and find new friends in the real world. We set ourselves the task of captivating your children so that gadgets fade into the background, and instead of them there is more fresh air, children's laughter, active games, creative development and fun communication!

Football, volleyball, badminton, ping pong, basketball and other sports games.

We offer exciting team games, exciting quests, creative crafts, interesting workshops and much more!

The price already includes: full meals and a daily program of activities.

Seats are limited - hurry so your kids don't miss out on their new unique adventure!
